Thos. L. Moore Clerk of the Western District of Virginia.

The Bond of Thomas L. Moore, general Receiver of the District Court of the U.S. for the Western District of Virginia at Clarksburg, West Virginia, and figures following, known all men by these presents, that we Thomas L. Moore and Nathan Hoff, are held and firmly bound unto the United States of America in the sum of Ten thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves our heirs, Executors and Administrators jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals, and dated this 28th day of March 1857.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound Thomas L. Moore, general receiver of the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Virginia holden at Clarksburg shall receive, take charge of and invest in Certificates of Debt of the United States, or in such Stock or other security as the Court may specially order, and in the manner required by such Order, all moneys heretofore paid into Court or into Bond or other place of deposits and now standing subject to the order of said Court, and all moneys hereafter so paid under any judgement order or decree of the Court, and also to pay out or dispose of the same, as the Court may order or decree, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
